Back to Work Guidelines (probeauty.org)

During this critical time, it's important to pay additional attention to the health and safety of others. This Back-to-Work guidance was developed in partnership with Leslie Roste, RN, BSN and leading industry infection control specialist. It is designed to help make everyone more comfortable once services resume in the salon and spa environments. The date you may return to work is determined by your local state authorities and must be followed.
